The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of KNOWN COMPOSITION. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound.

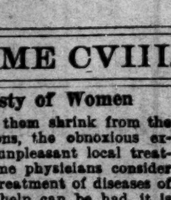
If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

A Reliable Remedy FOR CATARRH

Ely's Cream Balm

is quickly absorbed. Gives Relief at Once.



It cleanses, soothes, heals and protects the diseased membrane resulting from Catarrh and drives away a Cold in the Head quickly. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Full size 50 cts. at Druggists or by mail. Liquid Cream Balm for use in atomizers 75 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others, coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect. Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physicians can but find Nature's way to health. And this is strikingly true with regard to Constipation.

The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., this same Cascara bark is given its greatest possible power to correct constipation. A toothsome Candy Tablet, called Lax-ets, is now made at the Dr. Shoop Laboratories, from this ingenuous and most effective prescription. Its effect on Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfying.

No griping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box.

POWER OF JUSTICES.

Claude Hill has been ordered released by the Court of Appeals in an opinion handed down in Richmond yesterday. Judge James Keith, president of the court, prepared the opinion of the court. The court has thus disposed of the question whether it is lawful for the police justices of the cities of the State to hold a person as a "suspicious character." While the court holds that this not within the scope of the powers of the courts below, it still holds that a man can be taken for the supposed commission of a crime without warrant and taken before a magistrate for commitment upon a specific charge. Thus, it will not be permissable for a justice to again commit to jail any person who is charged with "being a suspicious character." He will not get down to facts and officers will have to make oath that a man is charged with crime of a specific nature. Otherwise the person must not be held.

The case at bar was that of Claude Hill, the negro arrested some days ago on the belief that he is the man who committed the assault on Miss Mamie Conner in the eastern end of Richmond, and for which several other negroes had been previously arrested. David Meade White, counsel for Hill, sued out a writ of habeas corpus and raised the issue of the detention of Hill by the police when he was not charged on warrant with any specific crime. He argued for a dismissal of his client, while the attorney for the State opposed on the ground that there was reason for believing that the man was guilty of a felony and that it was being investigated by the police.

SUICIDE PACT.

In sympathy with the suicidal mania that has pervaded Bristol, Tenn., during the past week, during which twelve women have attempted to take their lives, five others last night drank poison by mutual agreement. One of the latter—Grace Howard—is expected to die, and her companions were saved from the same fate only by the heroic efforts of the physicians.

Thursday night's victims of the strange epidemic of self-destruction had planned death with a calmness and precision that gave thorough evidence of their determination to carry out the desperate resolve that they had made.

Their plans were well laid, and the death compact would have been carried to a successful culmination had not a mutual friend of all discovered the five women unconscious in the one room. Her alarm brought speedy assistance, and all were taken at once to a local hospital. On regaining consciousness, one of the women confessed to the suicidal compact, and said that they had drunk chloride of mercury.

The cause of the epidemic of suicide in Bristol is a complete mystery to the authorities of that place, and the fact that only women have attempted to take their lives during the period only complicates the mystery.

LINGERING COLD.

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

BOSTON'S DEBT.

The finance committee, which has been investigationg the affairs of the city of Boston, reported to the mayor yesterday that the net debt of the city, at the close of the last fiscal year, was $111,-8487,35, instead of $68,821,359, as reported by the city auditor. Suggestions regarding future loans are made.

The commission states that there has been an increase in the net debt of the city of 111 per cent. within the last 12 years, and it now amounts to $183 per capita of the estimated population of the city for this year.

"So much money has been borrowed," states the commission, "outside the limit and the basis of valuation is so high, that there is, in reality, an underlying lien on every piece of real estate in the city, amounting to practically 10 per cent. of the market value."

In closing the commission says: "No community can thrive under the load of a debt which is piling up four times as fast as its wealth and seven and one-half times as fast as its population."

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

SOIL SURVEYING.

The Bureau of Soils of the Department of Agriculture will concentrate the energies of its field force of experts in soil surveying in the southern States through out the coming winter. Already work has been commenced in Alabama, where $10,000 was appropriated by the last legislature for a comprehensive survey, and similar work will be prosecuted in Louisiana, Georgia, Mississippi and Texas. Soil survey will be immediately undertaken in Wautauga, Baldwin, Bibb Henry and Lamar counties, Alabama. In some of these work has been going on since October 1. In Georgia, Thomas and Grady counties will be gone over, particularly with a view of determining the adaptability of the soil to the growth of Cuban filler and wrapper leaf tobacco. In Louisiana along the Yazoo bottom, three parish surveys are in contemplation. Holmes and Monroe counties are on the list for similar reconnoissance in Mississippi. Surveys are also projected in the first Texas congressional district, near Mt. Pleasant, and also along the gulf coast, in the vicinity of Corpus Christi.

PRESERVING TIMBER.

A series of experiments to determine the most economical and efficient method of preserving farm timbers, such as fence posts, shingles, etc., will shortly be undertaken jointly by the United States Forest Service and the Louisiana State Experiment Station at Calhoun. An agreement between the State and the federal government has just been signed. This work is in line with other agreements of the forest service in various States, whereby much valuable information has been obtained.

A Criminal Attack

on an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at all drug stores.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

THE gates of the Jamestown Exposition, held in honor of the three hundredth anniversary of the landing of the first English settlers in America, will close tonight. The exposition in every respect save financially has been a success and the thousands of visitors have been shown the wonderful resources of Virginia and of many of the other States. While not so large as some of the others held in recent years the Jamestown Exposition was admittedly one of the most attractive and from an historic and educational point of view surpassed all of its predecessors. The buildings were handsome and imposing, the exhibits the very latest inventions of the arts and sciences, and the naval reviews the finest that have ever occurred in American waters. Notwithstanding all this, but by reason of bad management the exposition did not draw sufficient crowds to make it a financial success and for this the world will pronounce it a failure. Upon whom the blame will rest is not now known, but from the very first the managers did not seem to pull together; then came open dissentions and finally when the women became involved in the controversies, the exposition's fate was sealed. But if it did not succeed, it did more—It deserved success.

PRACTICAL JOKERS often manifest about as much common sense as mobs. A crowd of would-be funny men a few nights since serenaded Mr. and Mrs. George Schreck at their residence in Wilmington, Del., using a 50-pound charge of powder, which they placed in a keg, discharging it in front of the house. As a result all the windows in the house were broken, other damage was done and the neighborhood was startled, as it was thought an explosion had occurred at the Dupont powder mills, which are not far away. Fortunately nobody was injured. Another foolhardy trick was perpetrated in Chicago, where six young women stenographers employed by the American Steel and Wire Company had a terrifying experience last week as the result of a prank played upon them by an office boy. The girls had entered a vault in which they were to sing during the noon hours and left the door partly closed. Just when the chorus was rolling forth little Willie Osterfelt, the office boy, slipped up to the vault, banged the door shut and gave the combination knob a whirl. The vault was airtight and none of the girls knew the combination and it took several men armed with pickaxes and crowbars some time to break a hole in the wall in order to keep the girls from smothering. They were released as soon as possible.

THE breach between Senator Foraker and the President has been widened, it is now believed, beyond the bridging limit. The Senator in a letter to Conrad J. Mattern, vice president of the Ohio republican league, made public last night, announces that he is a candidate for the republican nomination for president and will accept support to that end. Mr. Foraker's action removes any uncertainty as to his attitude. Its most serious bearing will be upon the chances of William H. Taft, who has been accepted by many republicans as President Roosevelt's candidate for the nomination. Mr. Foraker's announced purpose of accepting support for the nomination is one of the greatest political sensations that has been experienced for a long time. It puts away the plans of President Roosevelt and the friends of Mr. Taft to obtain unanimous indorsement of the Secretary of War's candidacy in his own State of Ohio, where Mr. Foraker is strong and where, in fact the movement for his candidacy, which forms the text of his announcement; was initiated. The Senator if he is not able to secure the presidential nomination for himself is in a position most probably to prevent its going to Mr. Taft. Vengeance is sweet.

MR. LESLIE M. SHAW, former Secretary of the Treasury of the United States and now President of the Carnegie Trust Company, returned to New York a few days ago from Chicago, where he conferred with leading men of that city. In an interview he said;

We are in for a long period of business stagnation. Trade in many lines is being restricted, and I look for a year of depression. We are coming to a presidential election, which always affects business to some extent, and with this currency squeeze as a starter I do not expect conditions to improve very much until after the election. We are going to pull through this thing all right, but it is uncomfortable while it lasts.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Nov. 30.

All the preliminaries necessary to start the House of representatives in motion Monday, will be arranged today at separate caucuses of the democrats and republicans. The democrats are billed to get together at 2:30 p. m. and the republicans at 8. The only question about the choice of Speaker arises over who shall have the honor of nominating Mr. Cannon, and who shall announce the name of John Sharp Williams for the democrats, and automatically the minority leadership. During the morning representative Mann of Ills., was leading for the Cannon honors and Burke Cockran for announcing the name of Williams, in the democratic caucus. The only contest likely to come up in the republican caucus is over the postmastership of the House. The position has been held by Ohio for many years, but when the Ohio delegation allowed Representative Burton to name his secretary, James H. Cassidy, there was a hitch. It looks now, as if S. A. Langum, of Minnesota, Representative Tawney's candidate might win out. All the republicans will retain their jobs. The democrats are divided in the selection of the chairman of the caucus, Representative Clayton of Alabama, wanting to succeed Henry, of Texas. All serious opposition to John Sharp Williams, for minority leader, seems to have died out.

The democratic caucus nominated Mr. John Sharp Williams for minority leader and Mr. Charles Edwards, of Texas, for clerk. Judge Clayton presided.

Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas called to pay his respects to the President today. They shook hands very cordially. The last time they met was at Little Rock two years ago, when they shook fists at each other over the lynching question. The Governor defended southern lynchings and the President said things on the other side which fairly sizzled. In the midst of the excitement caused by the debate, the grandstand broke and fell. No one was hurt except a poetess who was readiug a poem when the stand fell. Her feelings were injured for she never finished the poem. "I hope you'll observe that I am not wearing horns and have no odor of brimstone about me," said Senator Davis after his call upon the President "I merely called to pay my respects."

"We'll have currency legislation this winter but we'll not get it in a minute," said Senator Depew today after a talk with the President. "We need a new law very badly, but whatever is done should be done only after the most careful consideration. We have lived and prospered under our present money laws for fifty years and they will not be changed in fifty days." Senator Depew said that he favored the plans proposed by the New York bankers association and the Chamber of Commerce, which are very much alike. "I favor an asset currency," he said, "which can be expanded up to a certain limit under a high rate of interest. Canada, Germany and France all have currency laws of this sort and they have all proven adequate. Canada, I believe, may issue emergency currency up to about $60,000,000 and it has never yet been called upon to issue the limit."

"The American people will not work any more. They are too busy speculating and living off the labor of others, and as a result the money of the country is flowing to foreign countries." Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, sets these facts down as leading causes of the present money panic. "We've got to have a new currency law right away" said the Senator, "for we need an emergency currency very badly. This currency should in my estimation be issued by the government and bear such a high rate of interest that it would be retired as soon as the crisis of a panic is passed. But in our country all the work is done by foreigners—mostly Greeks. As fast as they can collect their wages they ship most of the money home. That means more Greeks. Our immigration laws must be strengthened to stop the importation of at least a proportion of the laborers and the American people themselves must go back to work."

Immediately after the adjournment of the Senate on Monday, which will take place as soon as the new members are sworn in, and resolutions are presented in respect to the memory of Senators Morgan and Pettus, there will be a conference of the republicans in the Marble Room. This will be for the purpose of appointing a committee on organization. This will consist of nine members and will be charged with the duty of making recommendations, to be acted upon at a subsequent caucus, for filling the vacancies on the committees. There are a large number of these, occasioned by the retirement of old Senators, and already there is a good deal of log-rolling in the effort to secure the choice assignments.

Senator Gore, the blind statesman from Oklahoma, was escorted to the President's office today by his colleague Senator Owen. It was Senator Gore's first meeting with the executive. When he emerged from the President's office the sightless Senator was smiling broadly. "The President said that he would have greeted us with more pleasure but no more cordiality had we been republicans instead of democrats" said Senator Gore and he chuckled again.

President Amador, of the republic of Panama, today paid tribute to the memory of the first President of the United States, by making a pilgrimage to Washington's tomb at Mount Vernon. President Roosevelt had placed his yacht, Mayflower, at the disposal of the distinguished visitor, and the trip was made on this vessel. The run was made at three o'clock, and later in the day, President Amador and his party drove about the city. They will return to New York tomorrow afternoon.

Senator Foraker's bold announcement of his candidacy for the presidential nomination, is the solo topic of discussion today about the government buildings and the hotel lobbies, where senators and representatives are gathering. Even the President's friends expressed their admiration for the fighting Ohioans nerve. It is believed that no other leading republican would dare do what Senator Foraker has done. His defiance of the President on the floor of the Senate during the last 2 years netted him nothing but ignominious defeat every time the opposing forces reached a voting "show down," and often enough his was the only voice raised in opposition to the Roosevelt power. In spite of all the reverses he has sustained, in spite of the wide popularity that President Roosevelt enjoys, Foraker again throws his gauntlet into the arena and, in spite of the long line of victories they have won, the administration gladiators feel icy chills along their spines at the prospect of again doing battle with him. They are certain they will beat Foraker to a standstill. But though they win, they will know they have been in a fight, and the administration candidate—Secretary Taft—is quite likely to limp into the national convention next summer looking somewhat the worse for the encounter with a divided Ohio delegation behind him. Political wise ones about the capital see in the Foraker defi even more than the probable division of the Ohio delegation. They regard it as the cyrstallization of anti-Roosevelt sentiment. They see in it the hands of Harriman and of Rockefeller; of the "Reactionaries," who are preaching less strenuosity and a return to the political primers of the fathers; in fact of the entire list of forces, corporate, sectional and individual, that have lined up in opposition to the present occupant of the White House. Senator Foraker believes that he can solidify all these scattered fragments, and mold them into a force sufficiently strong to tie the President's hands in the national convention.

Large numbers of persons including many army and navy officers left here today for Philadelphia to witness the football game to be played there this evening between the cadets of the military and naval academics.

The Panam Canal bond issue promises to be greatly over subscribed. Bids will be opened at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. Secretary Cortelyou's decision to issue no more of the three per cent gold certificates may have the effect of increasing its premium on the canal bonds.

By directions of the War Department, the bodies of all soldiers who have died, either in battle or of sickness in the Philippines within the past two years are to be disinterred and brought home for interment. The number will reach nearly to 300. Heretnfore, the Philippine government has kept in force an iron clad rule that no bodies should.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Mrs. Bradley's Trial.

Washington, Nov. 30.—The last phase of the struggle over the fate of Mrs. Bradley, the forensic battle between the attorneys began today.

Assistant District Attorney Turner opened the appeal of the government to the jury. He was succeeded by Attorney Wells who made the opening address for the defense. The government will close with District Attorney Baker on Monday, and the defense with Attorneys Hoover and Judge Orlando Powers, the case going to the jury late Monday afternoon.

It is said that the government attorneys will pin their hope of success to a verdict of manslaughter. This was the burden of one of their four prayers which the court granted in substance, covering the penalty for the accidental or unintentional discharge of the pistol, while the defendant was threatening the victims.

The defense, on the other hand, is confident of acquittal, believing that the prayer, relating to the reasonable doubt of the sanity of the defendant, which was granted by the court, will be a sufficient basis for a verdict of not guilty.

After Assistant District Attorney Turner had stated the case from the standpoint of the prosecution, Attorney Wells for the defense, made a vivid impression by his appeal.

The latter finished his addresses at 12:45, after which the court adjourned until Monday.

Mrs. Bradley, nearing the end of her ordeal, was cheerful as she entered the court room today. Her little son, who suffering with membraneous croup, the physicians now say he is out of immediate danger, and his recovery is looked for.

Baker Poisoned.

Boston, Nov. 30.—Acute arsenical poisoning killed Walter F. Baker, the young clubman whose death at Bagota, N. J., on October 26 is still a mystery. The first authoritative statement concerning the cause was given out today by Dr. William F. Boos, of the Harvard Medical School, who subjected the body to an exhaustive analysis, lasting several weeks. The arsenic was found in several of the organs. There is no reason whatever for suspecting suicide and there is, up to the present time, not sufficient evidence to justify the asking for a warrant for the arrest of any person. George R. Blynn, a Boston attorney, has been appointed special administrator of the dead man's estate, and the will which leaves $110,000 to the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurd at whose house he died, will be contested by the brother.

Little Boy Burned to Death.

South Norwalk, Conn., Nov. 30.—Norman Lynch, two-and-one-half years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lynch, of Summit avenue, was playing round a bonfire in a field near his home yesterday afternoon when his kilts caught fire. With him was his brother Harold, aged 4, and Arnold and Peter Hayes, about the same age. When Norman began to cry, saying that he was afire, his little playmates stood about him unable to check the flames. The child lay down on the ground and not knowing what else to do his companions kneeled beside him and stroked his hands and kissed his face as he writhed in agony. His screams brought some adults and by this time all his clothing but the collar of his coat and his shoes were burned off. He was removed to the hospital, but died at nine o'clock. His mother, who suffers from nervous trouble, is in a critical condition.

Harry Thaw's Diversions.

New York, Nov. 30.—Harry Thaw, weary of handball and somewhat discouraged at the prospect of the postponement of his trial, today introduced the game of diabola at the Tombs prison. With the permission of the warden, Evelyn Thaw brought the game with her when she made her visit today. Harry was delighted and began trying to balance the spool on the string at once. The fascination of the new fad seized him immediately, and already he is planning to get half a dozen sets so that the six men who exercise in the jail yard together every day may all engage in the sport.

Killed Wife and Himself.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—John Homan shot his wife to death in the presence of their six children, who vainly sought to prevent the father from accomplishing his purpose, and then fired a bullet into his own head at their home in Elmhurst, Ill., today. The woman was killed instantly and the man is dying. Attracted by the sound and angry words between their parents, the children, none of whom is older than 13 years, cowered in terror in the kitchen. The woman had left the man about a month ago, alleging cruel treatment, and was suing for divorce.

Conditions in Portugal.

Paris, Nov. 30.—Government secret service agents arrested several suspected anarchists in a house in the outskirts of Lisbon early today, according to a report from the Portuguese capital, and seized a small magazine of bombs. The prisoners are believed to be members of a small society of "reds," rather than representatives of the great Portuguese political parties. The police are endeavoring to extort confessions from them.

Policeman Shot.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Patrolman Dennis J. O'Keefe was shot today when he attempted to capture three burglars who were trying to break into a building on Erie avenue. He had captured one man, when the other two opened fire. A bullet penetrated the policeman's forehead. Three men, giving the names of Hugh McKay, Dick Mathers and John Bates, were arrested later. O'Keefe has a chance for recovery.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 30. 11 a. m.—The chief topic this morning was the gossip that gold imports in excess of the amount required will remain here indefinitely and that large amounts of the imported funds are now being invested in railroad bonds. Several million dollars of Oregon Short Line bonds it is stated, have been taken in large blocks for the highest class of foreign bankers. Gains ranging from 1 to over 2 points were made in many of the leading railroad stocks. The industrials joined in the upward movement. Government bonds unchanged; other bonds strong and higher.

Chapped hands are quickly cured by applying Chamberlain's Salve. Price, 25 cents. For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton and Company.

No Prospects of Race.

New York, Nov. 30—There will be no yacht race for the America's cup next year unless notification of an intent to challenge is received by the New York Yacht Club before midnight tonight. Under the conditions of the deed of gift a ten months' notice of intention must be given. The yachting season here closed officially on September 30. So the ten months limit expires tonight.

Organized on Wind.

New York, Nov. 29—"The International Trust Company was organized on wind," announced Attorney General Jackson today. "If Temporary Receiver Brown's information to me is correct there was falsification of the Brooklyn and Borough Bank's records and manipulation of their securities, to give the International an apparent $1,000,000 surplus, as required by law.

THE NEW SENATE.

With the admission of Oklahoma into the sisterhood of the States the United States Senate of the Sixtieth Congress will have a membership of 92, the largest in its history. Of these the republicans will have 61 and the democrats 31, so the republicans will lack just one of a two-thirds majority. The majority will now have to depend upon the support of at least one democrat to secure the ratification of any treaty that may be submitted by the President. Whether the two men appointed by the Governor of Oklahoma to represent that State, Messrs. Gore and Owen, will be permitted to take their seats has yet to be determined. There is a question whether the Governor has the right to appoint them or whether they should wait till the election by the legislature. There will be thirteen new senators to be sworn in.

At least two more millionaires have been added to the Senate. Simon Guggenheim comes from Colorado to succeed Patterson, who also had his million. Isaac Stephenson, of Wisconsin, steps into the place of John Spooner. There has been a slight rearrangement of the seats on the Senate floor. The overflow republicans who were unable to secure seats on the regular republican side to the left of the presiding officer's chair, have all been provided for in a wedge shaped division on the democratic side, right under the public gallery immediately to the right of the press gallery Many of the Senators are already in town and the general expectation is that the coming session will be an interesting and lively one.

FARM PRODUCTS.

Mr. James Wilson, in his annual report as Secretary of Agriculture, states that the American farm production of 1907 is well up to the average in quantity, while the prices are higher and the farmer gets more money for what he has to sell. He estimates the total value of farm productions in 1907 at $7,412,000,000, which is 10 per cent. greater than the total of 1906, 17 per cent. greater than that of 1905, 20 per cent. above that of 1904. 25 per cent. in excess of that for 1903 and 57 per cent. greater than the total value for 1899. The animals sold from farms and those slaughtered on them in 1907 were worth about $1,270,000,000, or nearly twice as much as the cotton crop.

Speaking of the chief crops, the secretary says that corn ranks first in importance, and while not as large as that of 1906 the value of the corn crop of 1907 is greater, and he figures that eight such crops would pay for duplicating every mile of steam railroad in the United States, with terminals, rolling stock and all railroad property.

In value the cotton crop of 1907 is estimated to be from $650,000,000 to $675,000.000. The crop is the third one in size ever raised.

The wheat crop is 625,576,000 bushels 5 per cent. less than the average quantity for the five preceding years. But the value is about $500,000,000, or 5½ per cent. more than the average, although the crops of 1901, 1902 and 1905 had each a slightly higher value than that of this year.

FORAKER A CANDIDATE.

Senator J. B. Foraker made his formal bow to the country last evening as a candidate for the republican presidential nomination, by accepting the indorsement tendered to him by the advisory and executive committees of the Ohio republican League of Clubs at their meeting in Columbus on November 20. He thus sets himself up as a rival of Secretary of War William H. Taft, for the support of his own State, and henceforth intends to compete with him in the quest for delegates to the national convention.

The league also indorsed Mr. Foraker for re-election to the Senate, but he lays this indorsement aside. His rejection of it, however, is couched in such phraseology that by some politicians it may not be construed as absolutely irrevocable. Yet it is beyond question that he has subordinated it clearly and definitely to his presidential candidacy. The Senator's announcement of his entry into the race for the executive succession is contained in a letter he has sent to Conrad J. Mattern, of Dayton, vice president of the republican league.

Washington, D. C.

Uncle Remus's Magazine for December, which has been received from its publishers in Atlanta, breathes the Spirit of Christmas in editorial, in story and in verse. Editorially Joel Chandler Harris declares his strong belief in the Christmas Saint and the need of such a faith. He also contributes "Uncle Remus addresses Brother, Wind," "Miss Little Sally," a story, and as "Mr. Billy Saunders, organizes a new Legislature." "Charleston and early American art," illustrated from paintings and miniatures tells of the beginning of art in this country. "King Cotton holds a Levee," "A glance in passing" and "Mme. Alla Nazimova" are to be noted. The fiction and verse of this number are excellent, as is the book-review department.

The American Magazine for December, which has been received from its publishers in New York, is one of the best of the Christmas issues; the articles are timely and its fiction clever. Ida Tarbell writes of the recent Standard Oil fine, sifts down the whole controversy, and shows the result. Lincoln Steffens tells the story of San Francisco, giving actual facts, names and dates, and "A survey and diagnosis of Uncle Joe Cannon" is of more than ordinary interest. A tender little sketch of "The Slaves who Stayed," "Footlight Fiction" and "The Pilgrim's Scrip" deserve mention. Six short stories by well-known writers give excellent fiction.

Holiday Exhibition
—OF—
Toys, Dolls & Games

Many new Toys have been added to the stock this week.

The most celebrated factories of the Old World were visited and the best of their products have been brought to this country to make up this splendid stock.

It would be impossible to enumerate the multitude of playthings we have assembled, but we have chosen them to meet every child's idea of pleasure and every parent's idea of price.

The Toys are shown to best advantage in separate sections under such perfect light that any defects are easily detected.

A special feature of the Toy Display is the Exhibition of New Toys.

Exclusive novelties which were personally selected in Europe by our buyer, and which are controlled by us.

Our representative spent many weeks abroad, visiting all the great toy centers.

He was a generous buyer at the great Annual Fair which is held at Leipzig, Germany, and which brings together all the celebrated toy manufacturers in the world.

From this varied display of Toys from almost every country a special collection of novelty toys was added to our stock.

Our W. & L. Dollar Doll.

Was made expressly for us in Germany. It is not the largest doll we could get to sell for this popular price, but it is absolutely the best doll value obtainable in this country for one dollar. It measures 22 inches in height, is full ball jointed, has the finest quality bisque head, sewed curly wig of fine natural hair, moving eyes, exposed teeth, and beautiful lifelike face.

You will find each section of our Toy Department in charge of courteous and experienced salespeople, who will describe in detail the interesting points of each toy and aid you in every way with your selections.

Purchases made now will be carefully stored and delivered at your convenience, up to and including Christmas Eve.

We cordially invite the children and the grown folks, too, to visit our Toy Department, the land of make-believe, and see all the new toys in the happiest Christmas time surroundings.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Is it the Result of Prolonged Study and Deep Research.

Marconi—the wireless wizard—did not stumble accidentally upon the principles of his marvellous invention.

It was only by deep and prolonged study of the cause of certain known phenomena in nature that he was able to produce the startling effect.

Many people, in speaking of Hair Restorers, have a way of bunching them altogether without discrimination.

Herpicide is as different from other so-called "hair restorers" and "remedies" as day is from night.

It is a scientific preparation prepared for the sole purpose of destroying the scalp microbe that causes dandruff and falling hair.

RECEPTION TO PASTOR AND BRIDE.

The members of the Del Ray Baptist Church and other friends, among them the Rev. Mr. Beall, of the M. E. Church South, tendered Rev. C. K. Hobbs and his bride an informal, but exceedingly pleasant reception, at the residence of Mr. Russell Wilkinson, last evening. Mr. Hobbs informed his church, soon after taking charge, that he would soon make an addition to the working force, and on the 19th of November he was united in marriage to Miss Page, at her home near Crozet, in Albemarle county. After visiting relatives and friends in some of the eastern cities of the State, Mr. Hobbs and his accomplished better-half arrived at their future home Thursday evening. The reception was a pleasant surprise to the happy couple. They were the recipients of many nice presents, among them a handsome suit of furniture. Several persons from Alexandria attended the reception.

SALE, AND RECITAL OF OLD SONGS.

On December the tenth at Lee Camp Hall the Alexandria Free Kindergarten Association will have a sale and recital of old songs. The sale of delicious candies, cakes, and beautiful articles suitable for Christmas gift, will be under the direction of Mrs. L. E. Uhler. It will be from two to seven and after the recital. Many of our best singers have kindly consented to sing for the good cause, and no one should miss this opportunity of hearing the lovely old songs of long ago.

The Right Rev. Bishop will preach at the high mass. Ushers will be on hand to show visitors attention.

ELKS' MEMORIAL SERVICES.

All the arrangements for the memorial services of Alexandria Council of Elks have been made, and an interesting time is anticipated by all who propose to be at the Opera House tomorrow night. The programme of the exercises was published in yesterday's Gazette.

MEN'S MEETING.

There will be a meeting for men in the lecture room of the M. E. Church, South tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. J. W. Smith, of Washington, will deliver an address on "The True Ideal." Solo by Miss Ethel Grimes.

The line up of the Alexandrians will probably be Thompson, Dobson, Gray, Wilkerson, McKenney, Davis, Duble, Bittle and Tomlin. Ladies are cordially invited.

CRAWFORD'S DISAPPEARANCE.

An investigation into the circumstances attending the disappearance of Lieut. John W. Crawford, secretary to Admiral George Dewey, has caused many to believe that the man is alive, and is not far from Washington. It is said that Maj. Sylvester, of Washington, has talked with several persons who were on the ferryboat Lackawanna on the night of Crawford's disappearance, and from their statements he has assumed that the lieutenant did not jump into the river, but left the boat at Alexandria, and disappeared.

The fact has been developed that at noon on the day of his disappearance Crawford wore an old coat and hat that his associates had not seen him wear for some time previous. This fact was regarded as significant in view of the discovery on the boat which the lieutenant went to Alexandria, the evening of his disappearance, of a coat and hat which were positively identified as those he usually wore. Miss Ella Griffin, of Alexandria, told Maj. Sylvester that she had met Crawford several times, and that she saw him on the boat that night with a bundle in his hand.

It is believed that Crawford carried an extra coat and hat in the bundle, that he changed them for those he wore, leaving his garments, by which he could be easily identified, on the deck, thus leading those who found them to assume that he had drowned himself. When the coat and hat were found by the deck hands the coat was neatly folded, and the hat placed on top of it.

J. D. Harrison, an employe of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, who also says he saw Crawford aboard the ferryboat, told the major that the man seemed to be in a highly nervous state; that he walked up and down the deck in an agitated manner, constantly casting glances at those in the cabin.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Robert Smith, colored, charged with assaulting Mary Carter, also colored, was fined $10.

A white boy, charged with assaulting another boy, was dismissed.

Walter Ashton, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was dismissed with an admonition.

Two white men, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited their collateral by failing to appear.

John Bryant, colored, charged with stealing beer from Jos. Breen, was sent to jail for 30 days.

Clarence Jones, colored, charged with assaulting Pearl Kid, colored, with a catrifle, was fined $10.

FALSE ALARM.

A number of boys who were in the Opera House last night witnessing a moving picture exhibition imagined they heard fire engines in the street, and suddenly moved toward the front windows. This caused an alarm in the hall, many supposing that a fire had been discovered in the building. Numbers started to leave the hall and the vanguard, composed mostly of boys, made their way to the front entrance where they encountered Officer Knight, who told them there was no fire alarm in the street, and drove the excited crowd back into the hall.

FINED TEN DOLLARS.

The case of Clarence Jones, colored, charged with discharging a catrifle at a colored girl named Pearl Kid, came up in the Police Court this morning. From the evidence the boy accosted the girl and ordered her to hold up her arms. This she failed to do and started to run, when Jones discharged the gun at her. The ball passed through the girl's clothing and caused a bruise on her back. Justice Caton fined the boy $10 and confiscated the gun. The shooting took place last Thursday evening in the southwestern section of the city.

GERMAN.

The Alexandria German Club opened the season last night with a beautiful dance given at McBurney's Hall. Judge L. C. Barley led the german, introducing a number of new figures. The chaperones were Mrs. Eva Mushbach, Mrs. L. C. Barley, Mrs. Julian Miller, Mrs. J. Sidney Douglas, Mrs. A. W. Armstrong, Mrs. A. D. Beckett, Mrs. Danenhower, Miss Sallie Kemper and Mrs. George S. French. Beside the Alexandrians there were guests from Washington, Baltimore and other points.

ACCIDENT TO TROLLEYMAN.

Mr. Edward A. Downey, living at 401 south Royal street, a trolleyman on the electric railway, fell from one of the cars of that line last night on the new Highway bridge and the cars passed over his left foot, crushing it. The injured man was taken to the station at Twelfth street and Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, and then conveyed to the Emergency Hospital. This morning the foot was amputated a few inches above the ankle.

THE MARKET.

There were no material changes in the prices of country produce in market this morning. Eggs were still high, many of those offered bringing 40 cents a dozen. One countryman, however, had the temerity to ask 45 cents. Fresh pork sold at 15 cents a pound. Geese weighing 8 pounds and over brought $2. The supply was about the same as that of last Saturday.

MR. SMITH'S HORSES.

At Bennings on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, the Junior Steeplechase was won by Sandy Creeker and the Selling Steeplechase by Navajo, and on yesterday, at the same place, the Southern Steeplechase for hunters was won by My Grace, the three above-named horses belonging to Mr. Courtland H. Smith, of Alexandria county.

FIRE IN FAIRFAX.

The store of Mr. D. S. Beach at Stoneleigh, in Lee district, Fairfax county, about 18 miles south of this city, caught fire last night and was totally destroyed. The postoffice of Stoneleigh was located in the store. The loss is unknown.

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT.

Intelligence was received here last night from Natchez, Miss., announcing the death of Mr. John Harper, a native of Alexandria, which occurred on Wednesday morning last. The funeral took place at noon today. The deceased was 59 years old. He was a son of the late W. W. Harper and a brother of Mr. F. S. Harper and Miss Maggie Harper, of this city. He was on a visit to his home a few weeks ago. In early manhood Mr. Harper left his home here and engaged in business in the southern country where he became prosperous and prominent. For many years he had lived in Natchez. Mr. Harper leaves two sons and five daughters. His wife, who was Miss Florence Blumley, died several years ago. The many friends and cotemporaries of the deceased, among whom he was justly popular, will read the announcement of his death with regret.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and catartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally.—MRS. ROSA POTTS, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Significant Prayer.

SATURDAY EVENING, NOV. 30, 1907.

A Lesson in Language.

A regular Mr. Malaprop recently came home from his first visit to Europe. He grew enthusiastic about Rome.

"It was fine," he declared, "to go into them churches over there and see the old tombs—cigarophagusses, they call 'em. And then the Sixteen chapel is great, and as for the Vaccination, where the pope lives, well!"

But his stock of compliments gave out when he got to the subject of beggars.

"I always refused them pennies," he said, "because, you see, I didn't want to set a bad prestige!"—New York Times.

Not So Many.

They went in to dinner together. He was very bashful, and she tried in vain to draw him out. Finally she began to talk books, and he became responsive. "And Hugo?" she asked. "Do you like his style?" "Oh, yes," he replied; "I find him intensely interesting. I've read a number of his books." Then she asked, "Have you read 'Ninety-three?'" "No, I've—er—only read three. I didn't know he had written so many."

Reason For High Price.

"You charge me $2 for that little dish of possum?" said the guest at the crossroads hotel. "It's an outrage!"

"No, it ain't, stranger," replied the landlord. "I wuz six nights ketchin' that possum, an' when I kotched him I kotched the rheumatism with him, an' I need the money fer my doctor's bill."—Atlanta Constitution.

A Doubter.

Little Helen—Ma, the minister told me today that God gave me to you. Mother—Well, he did, my dear. Helen—Then somebody isn't telling the truth. I heard auntie tell Mrs. Watson that the court gave me to you.—Detroit Free Press.

His Ground.

He—Why are you going to marry that old fossil? She—I love the very ground he walks on. He—I know, but isn't there any other way of getting it?—London Opinion.

No Hindrance.

"May I have the next dance, Miss Pechis?"

"I'm engaged, Mr. Galley."

"Oh, what's the odds? Why, I'm married."—Exchange.

Nearly every Japanese follows the profession of his father.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough,

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by all druggist. 50c.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
